DEFENDANTS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE JURY TRIAL

COME the Defendants, Josh and Sarah Bowmar and Bowmar Bowhunting, LLC, by and through counsel, and move to continue the trial currently set for April 18, 2022. In support of said motion, Defendants would state of show that they are residents of Ohio, and Sarah Bowmar is expecting her second child to be born in March, just weeks prior to the trial of this matter. The Bowmars respectfully move the Court to continue the trial because to try the case as scheduled would be difficult for them logistically, emotionally, and as a practical matter in preparing for trial. The Defendants waive any speedy trial right objections pursuant to the period of delay attributable to this continuance should be excluded from the speedy trial calculations because the ends of justice in allowing the brief continuance due to Sarah Bowmar's pregnancy outweigh the best interest of the public and defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A)(i) and (h)(7)(B)(i) and (iv). The Defendants waive their speedy trial rights pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3162(c)(1) and §3162(a)(2). The Defendants have been advised of their rights pursuant to U.S.C. §18 U.S.C. §3161 et seq. and they agree with the bases and consent to the continuance.

For the foregoing reasons, the Bowmars respectfully move this Court to continue the trial which is currently set to begin on April 18, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
